

“THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT”

Introduction

Context

Key Idea: The Greatest Commandment is to Love God and to Love your Neighbor

1. You Need To Love God With Everything You Have

Quote from Deuteronomy 6:4ff
Text known as the Shema

So important they wrote this text on small strips of paper and put them in leather boxes called phylacteries.

How We Are to Love:

2. You Need To Love Your Neighbor As Yourself

Question: Who is my “neighbor”?

“Love your neighbor as yourself“

3. This Command To Love God & Love Others Cannot Be Separated

Conclusion

“THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT”

Introduction

Context

Key Idea: The Greatest Commandment is to Love God and to Love your Neighbor

1. You Need To Love God With Everything You Have

Quote from Deuteronomy 6:4ff
Text known as the Shema

So important they wrote this text on small strips of paper and put them in leather boxes called phylacteries.

How We Are to Love:

2. You Need To Love Your Neighbor As Yourself

Question: Who is my “neighbor”?

“Love your neighbor as yourself“

3. This Command To Love God & Love Others Cannot Be Separated

Conclusion